H POLICE FORUM

Mark J. Wittenberg Training, Inc.

Ethics and Good Decision Making

Who you are comes before what you know in policing. It is clear that a lack of commonly shared ethical awareness creates the opportunity for distrust, a lack of respect and fear of the police. All agency members must share a common ethical foundation and make every decision based upon it. This training will help you achieve this.

Who should attend?

This forum is designed for police officers, corrections officers, patrol supervisors, field training officers, DTAC officers, internal affairs, watch commanders and command staff.

When and where?

B PUBLIC WORKS FORUM Ignacio Barrios, Sedgwick

Heavy Equipment Safety

Every year heavy equipment operators, ground workers, and pedestrians are injured or killed by mobile heavy equipment. It is important that before working around heavy equipment that management, supervisors, and crew members know the potential hazards and how to avoid them.

Who should attend?

This forum is for heavy equipment operators, ground workers, management, supervisors, grade setters, work and survey crew members.

When and where?

May 11	Tracy
May 12	Reedley

F REGIONAL WORKSHOP

Tom Kline, Sedgwick

Valley Fever

People who work outdoors in the endemic counties in California's Central Valley, especially those workers who dig or disturb soil, are at risk for Valley fever. The new California law, AB 203, requires construction employers in endemic counties provide Valley fever training to their employees. The training will cover Valley fever basics and ways to minimize exposures.

Who should attend?

This workshop is for public works departments, construction project planners, risk managers, safety officers, health and safety trainers, and anyone who supervises employees or contractors who perform digging, excavation, or other dust-disturbing activities or work nearby.

When and where?

June 1	Lathrop
June 2	Madera
June 3	Avenal
